Mill Creek Welcomes Mr. Musika!

By Alyssa Davis and Brynne Mulloy

Here at Mill Creek, we always have teachers coming and going. Last Friday, our wonderful P.E. teacher, Mrs. Leuthe, left to have twins. Now everybody has one question. Who is the replacement? We have interviewed Mr. Musika, the new P.E. teacher.

First we asked him a little bit about his past. Our first question was, “Have you ever been a gym teacher before?” “Yes, I taught at a high-school in Florida, and an Elementary school in Lansdowne.” “Wow! Florida! That’s really far, quite the difference in weather!” “What made you want to be a gym teacher?” “Well, I think it was my love of sports and education.”

Then we asked him about what he thinks of us Mill Creekers. “How do you like Mill Creek so far?” “Horrible! Just kidding! I like a lot about it. The staff and kids are really nice.” We also asked him what his favorite thing to teach was. “Kids. (Ha ha!) I like to teach health and Spanish.” “Wow, you can speak Spanish!?” “Alyssa, if he can teach it, he can probably speak it.”

“What can you say to the 221 Intelligencer readers about staying healthy?” “Hmmm, that’s a hard one. I think one of the most important things is making physical activity part of your daily routine. Also eat lots of fruits and vegetables of many colors.” So that’s the scoop! Although we’ll miss our loved P.E. teacher, Mrs. Leuthe, Mr. Musika will surely be a blast. Over and out.
